Class:              Loosen Up With Watercolour

Material List:

- Red, blue, yellow, and Payne's Grey watercolour paint, preferably tubes, as well as a few more colours of your choosing. No black or white, please.
- Paint palette/tray
- 140 lb cold press watercolour paper including a mix of cotton paper (Canson, Fluid, Indigo, and Arches for example) as well as regular watercolour paper so you discover the difference. Any size from 8"x10" to about 11"x17" will work.
- Cardboard or art board, slightly larger than your paper size
- 1" masking tape (the wider the tape the better - skinny tape will be problematic)
- Round size 10 or 12 watercolour brush
- Round size 6 or 8 watercolour brush
- Fan brush, size 2 or 4
- 1" flat watercolour brush
- Spray bottle
- Latex free masking fluid (aka frisket)
- Black acrylic ink bottle - Liquitex or similar.
- Elegant Writer calligraphy pen in black (please make sure it's the water-soluble pen, not permanent ink. Another brand of calligraphy pen will NOT work).
- Household paper towel roll
